News Release

July 21, 2009

For Immediate Release

The Bolton Health and Wellness Advisory Board has provided money to financially help two nurse aide students at Southeastern Community College for the upcoming fall semester.

To be considered, applicants must be a resident of Columbus County, preferably eastern Columbus County, and unemployed, underemployed, or a dislocated worker.

A completed application with all required documents should be submitted to the Columbus County JobLink Career Center, located in A Building at Southeastern Community College by Monday, August 10, 2009. Additionally, a copy of all high school and/or college transcripts and a completed HRD fee waiver form should be submitted.

Applicants are also required to prepare and attach a narrative explaining why they chose nurse aide training and their career goals. List any scholastic achievements, special interests, and school or community activities in which you have been involved. The attachment may be typed or handwritten.

Interested applicants may get an application from the Columbus County JobLink Career Center or email ttriplett@sccnc.edu to receive one electronically.
