

For more information contact:
Sue W. Hawks
Executive Dean of Institutional Advancement
Southeastern Community College
P.O. Box 151
Whiteville, NC 28472
(910) 642-7141, ext. 320
e-mail: shawks@sccnc.edu

NEWS RELEASE

March 18, 2009

For immediate release

CRIMSON CROSS HEADLINES SCC FOUNDATION DINNER THEATRE

Doris S. Dees will be honored by the SCC Foundation on April 4 at the 32nd annual Dinner Theatre. Entertainment for the gala event will be provided by Crimson Cross, a local group touted as one of Columbus County's most popular gospel groups.

Dees, a choir member herself, will appreciate the unique blend of southern gospel harmonies. Crimson Cross supports the SCC Foundation and has chosen to honor Dees and her family and friends with this performance.

The talented quartet has performed throughout the southeast in a variety of venues since 1998. The group is comprised of local residents who have committed their talents to reaching others. William Sellers, Donnie Price and Tim Wright are natives of Columbus County and Jason Ransom is from neighboring Bladen County.

Lead singer Sellers has strong roots in various styles of gospel music and has performed with many gospel greats. Price sings baritone and has performed at many notable gospel events, such as the Trinity Broadcasting Network and Gospel Explosion. Ransom, the group's tenor, is an accomplished singer who has performed on stage for over a decade with gospel favorites. Wright brings a stellar background of gospel music performances to the group as a bass singer.

Tickets for this year's SCC Foundation Dinner Theatre are $50 per person, which includes dinner and entertainment. The event, including a reception, will begin at 6 p.m. in T-Building on the SCC campus. Tickets may be purchased by calling the Foundation Office at 642-7141, ext. 320 or ext. 260.

Visa and Mastercard are accepted by the Foundation. Contributions to the SCC Foundation are tax-deductible as allowed by law.