Nurse Aide I Students Graduate

Nurse Aides, also known as nursing assistants, work as members of a nursing team in hospitals, nursing homes, private homes and a variety of other settings. For more information about the NAI program at SCC, contact Angela McDuffie at 642-7141, ext. 335.
