SCC's Phi Beta Lambda Students Place at State Competition

Southeastern Community College's Phi Beta Lambda (PBL) did an outstanding job this spring at the 2009 North Carolina PBL State Leadership Conference. Southeastern's members competed against delegates of colleges and universities from across North Carolina.

Four student delegates and two advisors, Connie Porter, Business Administration Lead Faculty and Business/Computer Science Instructor, and Angela Ransom, Business/Banking and Finance Instructor, attended the conference in Charlotte. All four students placed in their respective competitions and received certificates in Leadership Development.

Kayla Faulk of Whiteville received first place in Marketing Concepts and second place in Management Concepts. As a result, Faulk will represent SCC this summer at the North Carolina Phi Beta Lambda National Leadership Conference in Anaheim, Calif.

Erica Evans of Nakina received fourth place in Accounting Principles and fourth place in Economic Analysis and Decision Making. Jeanna McLellan of Whiteville won eighth place in Cyber Security, and Gloria Currie of Fairmont won eighth place in Word Processing.

In addition, Connie Porter was awarded the North Carolina Phi Beta Lambda Outstanding Advisor.

Phi Beta Lambda is a national organization for students preparing for business careers. Its mission is to bring business and education together in a positive working relationship through innovative leadership and career development programs. Members of SCC's chapters are notorious for winning state, regional and national awards.

Contact Connie Porter for more information about Phi Beta Lambda and the Business Administration program at 642-7141, ext. 349 or by email at cporter@sccnc.edu.

Summer classes begin May 20 and fall classes start Aug. 18. Refer to the college's Website at www.sccnc.edu for scheduling information or visit Admissions/Counseling in A-Building on the college campus.
