From Losing My Job to Running a Business Seminar Offered at SCC

What is an entrepreneur? Join us to learn how to go from working for someone else to working for you. Learn the traits of an entrepreneur and take self-inventory to determine if you have them. Participants will create a plan for pursuing their entrepreneurial goals. Find out if you have what it takes to be an entrepreneur.

This free seminar presented by Joyce Siler will be offered Wednesday, June 3 from 6 to 9 p.m. in T-120 on the campus of Southeastern Community College.

To pre-register, contact Jeanell Sweat at 642-7141, ext. 397 or at jsweat@sccnc.edu.

For more information about SCC's Small Business Center, contact Brenda Orders at 642-7141, ext. 419 or at borders@sccnc.edu.
